(c) Implementation of projects is primarily the responsibility of State Government/Union Territory Administrations. However, Ministry of Tourism also monitors the progress of projects with officials from the concerned State Governments/Union Territory Administrations through site visits and review meetings from time to time.

Opening of Andaman and Nicobar Islands for tourism

440. SHRIMATI JAYA BACHCHAN: Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any fresh proposal under consideration to open a large number of Andaman and Nicobar Islands for tourism;

(b) if so, the details in this regard; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) to (c) Tourism is being developed and promoted in a phased manner taking into account security, forest regulations and restrictions as per provisions of Andaman and Nicobar Islands (Protection of Aboriginal Tribes) Regulation, 1956.

International tourists arrival in the country

441. MS. SUSHILA TIRIYA: Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the country's share in international tourist arrivals continues to remain dismally low;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor; and

(c) what steps Government proposes to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TOURISM (SHRIMATI KANTI SINGH): (a) to (c) The share of India in international tourist arrivals increased from 0.34% in 2002 to 0.56% in 2007. Infrastructural constraints that inhibit larger inflow of foreign tourists to India are being addressed in the following manner:-

- Development of tourism sites under the Plan schemes of infrastructure development for tourist circuits and destinations;
- Focusing on growth of hotel infrastructure, particularly that for budget hotels;
- Strengthening of the existing Institutes of Hotel Management/ Food Craft Institutes and setting up new ones to meet the manpower requirements of the hospitality sector.

In addition, Ministry of Tourism also coordinates with Ministries of Railways, Civil Aviation, Road Transport and Highways, Urban Development, etc. for convergence of projects to ensure holistic and integrated development of tourism infrastructure.
